firefighters may have had?

- A. Sure. I've had some calls. There was a movement on swap time, and I got a call or I don't know if it was a call or I ran into somebody that said something about that; that said that that was not a good thing. And then, actually, someone from Columbus called me, from the Columbus Fire Department, and I guess he had heard some complaints and called me and because he lives in Phenix City and said that he didn't think it was a good idea to do away with swap time.
- Q. Okay. But I wanted to focus on the firefighters that have been employed here in Phenix City municipality. Have you had any input or discussions with any of those firefighters since the time you've been mayor about swap time or any policies or issues that involve a fire department?
- A. I had a conversation, and I don't -- I don't remember who it was with, but I remember there was a conversation to complain about the swap time. They didn't like the fact of swap time.
- Q. And what about other issues? Obviously, there are many issues in the fire department about public safety and the delivery of fire and rescue services. The last two years since you have been mayor, have you had a chance to speak with some of the firefighters about those issues?

I have -- you know, as far as any day-to-day things, the only thing that I was involved -- we had a interim city manager here when I first got elected, and there were some issues going on within the fire department. And he was meeting one day with the fire chief -- the interim city manager -- and asked me to sit down and talk with the fire chief. And my comments were to him that, you know, this is not my position to sit down and talk to the fire chief. And, basically, I just asked the fire chief, I said, you have had a lot of -- by virtue of us hearing complaints, typically, you pick up the paper and you read letters to the editor or you read, you know, where someone is -you know, the local paper is doing an investigation. You kind of hear rumblings that things may not be going exactly right.

And my question to the fire chief was, you know, all I want to know is do you understand that there are some issues within your fire department and do you have a plan to take care of those things? And that was the only thing I wanted to know, because that — you know, as far as my position, that's really not where I'm supposed to be as far as what the charter dictates my position to be. But I was invited to the meeting, and I just wanted him to know that I had heard that there were some issues. And, like I say, typically, it's through the paper and hearing rumblings and on occasion, we get -- I'm on a local talk show, so we get some phone calls from people that don't identify themselves, but they let us know some things are going on. And some you find out once you start asking the city manager and he does an investigation, some you find that are valid and some you find that are valid and some you find that are not.

- Q. Okay. And who was the fire chief at that point in time that you were just discussing?
 - A. Prater. Chief Prater.
 - Q. Jerry Prater?
 - A. Yes.

- Q. Who was the interim city manager?
- A. Max Wilkes.
- Q. Now, Mr. Mayor, I've heard it's been said about you and this is not new for a lot of city mayors that you have an open door policy and you are receptive to communications from city employees, whether they be firefighters or police or citizens in general. Is that a fair and accurate statement, that you do have that sort of open door policy?

A. It is.

- Q. And have you continued that open door policy during the two years that you have been mayor?
- A. I have. You have to be very limited, because some people want to -- it's real easy for someone to say that the mayor said this, and that may not be exactly what you said or it may not be what you implied. So in my position, you've got to be very careful because you don't want to -- you know, we are governed by a charter, and you want to make sure that you don't encroach on any of the city manager's duties, and you don't want something to be said that you told somebody to do something when that may not have been what you said. So I guess I'm very careful -- I do have an open door policy. I do return all my phone calls. But I'm very careful what I say, especially to employees, because you don't want them to think that you're directing them in any way or trying to circumvent any of the authority the charter gives to the city manager.
- Q. The police officers are employees of the City of Phenix City. Do you know if they have a labor association that they're members of?

- A. I don't know if they do. I know that -I'm assuming it's still active -- the FOP. But I'm not real sure of an association.
- Q. And FOP, is that the fraternity order of police?
 - A. Fraternal Order, yes, sir.
- Q. Fraternal Order of Police. Have you ever spoken to the leaders of the FOP representing the police officers of the city?
- A. Not as I know of. If I did, I don't know that I did.
- Q. Let's switch gears again. At some point in time, did you learn that the plaintiff, David Davis, in this case had been terminated from his position as a firefighter with the city?
 - A. I did. I heard that.
- Q. And who first told you that? How did you first discover that he was fired?
- A. If I'm not mistaken, it was one of the council members that told me -- one of my fellow council members.
 - Q. Would that have been Mr. Bush?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Did he call you up or did he see you on the street or what happened?

2.3

- A. I think we were talking on the phone one day, and we were talking about different things, and he happened to mention that Mr. Davis had been terminated.
- Q. And what was your response when you had this conversation with Mr. Bush?
- A. I didn't know that. I was kind of shocked and surprised because I didn't know that. I hadn't heard that. Typically, in a small town, you know I think this had happened like a week before. But typically in a small town, you kind of know what you know, typically what goes on, whether it's within the city or in the county or wherever it is, you kind of hear stuff. The rumor mill around here is strong so you hear those things, you know, typically an hour after they happen, not a week.
- Q. So when Council Member Bush informed you that Mr. Davis had been discharged, as you put it, you were surprised or shocked?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. Was Council Member Bush also surprised at the time?
- A. I think he was, because when he -- I guess when we were talking about it, when he told me, he expected me to know that for some reason. And I don't know -- I guess he thought I had already heard that.

- Q. Anything else said in that conversation with Council Member Bush that you can remember?
- A. We talked about a lot -- it was not -- the gist of the conversation was not to discuss a terminated employee; it was just about some other stuff, and that just came up.
- Q. When that conversation with Council Member Bush was concluded and you had been informed that Mr. Davis had been terminated, did you do anything or talk to anyone further about the discharge of Mr. Davis?
- A. If I'm not mistaken, when I heard that conversation, I was on the way out of town with my family for a long weekend at the beach or something, and so I didn't do anything immediately. But I did when I came back to town, I asked about it. I asked the city manager about it.
- Q. So did you initiate that conversation with the city manager?
 - A. Yes.

1-1

- Q. Did you call him up on the phone?
- A. No. I think I waited until I got back in town, because I was on the way out of town at that time.

- Q. So did you meet with the city manager and raise that issue of Mr. Davis's discharge?
- A. Yes. Typically not just for that purpose. Typically when I come in on Monday morning or something like that, I'll go over some things; typically complaints that I have had from people in the city about fixing potholes or so I have a list of stuff and just kind of go over that. And, oh, by the way, I heard this, is this true kind of thing. So just bring up stuff or we'll talk about a car wreck or a fire or whatever the case is or you know, trash on the riverwalk, so just kind of go over a list of stuff.
- Q. And was it Mr. Roberts who was the city manager that you discussed it with?
 - A. Yes.

- Q. And do you regularly meet with the city manager about various issues?
- A. We don't have a regular meeting time, but it's kind of -- you know, his office is right next to mine. So when things come up, it's, hey, let me ask you a question or, hey, I need to inform you of this. So it's not a -- we don't really have a -- barring our outside regular meetings or work session and council meeting, we don't really have official meeting times or times that we meet unless there's a specific purpose. But on these type conversations, it will be, you know, I heard this or this is going on, so — but, typically, it's more in line with minor complaints from citizens that I pass on to the city manager, and he takes care of those things.

- Q. On the particular occasion where you met with City Manager Roberts concerning, in part at least, the termination of Mr. Davis, did you have a list of items for that meeting that you did, in fact, want to discuss with the city manager?
 - A. I don't think I did, no.
- Q. Okay. But one of the issues that you raised with City Manager Roberts was the termination of Mr. Davis?
 - A. Correct.

- Q. And what do you recall the nature of that conversation with Mr. Roberts concerning the termination of Mr. Davis?
- A. Went something like, I heard that David Davis was terminated, is that true? And he confirmed that it was.
 - Q. So, undoubtedly, there was more discussed about that. Did you ask him why was he terminated? 1 I don't -- I -- I don't know if I did, but 2. I had heard that it was for breaking the chain of 3 command. And I don't know if I confirmed that or 1 I'm just -- because, typically, it's -- you 5 know, I would ask, you know, if I didn't know. But 6 in this case, I had heard that it was for breaching the chain of command or breaking the chain of 8 command, so I don't know if I asked him or not. I don't remember the specifics of the conversation. 10

But I kind of had heard, you know, going into the

- Q. And who had told you the reason why Mr. Davis was terminated?
 - A. Councilman Bush.

conversation, the reason why.

- Q. And when you say breaking the chain of command, please be more specific. Could that have been perhaps a conversation or telephone discussion that Mr. Davis had with you?
 - A. Yes.

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

- Q. And could you elaborate on that?
- A. Of the reason or the conversation that we had?
- Q. Well, both. Let's start with the reason first, and then we'll go into the conversation that Mr. Davis had with you.

- A. Okay. The -- Well, let me make sure I understand the question, okay? You want me to discuss the conversation?
- Q. That makes sense. Why don't we do that initially? Why don't you discuss the nature of the conversation that you had with Mr. Davis and who initiated that first.
- A. I got a call which a message from David Davis, which I returned his phone call, which is what I do. I try to return all my phone calls unless it's just someone I absolutely can't communicate with, and then I won't. But 99 percent of the time, I return phone calls.

And I returned Mr. Davis' phone call, called him back. And he wanted to discuss an item that was on the agenda, an ordinance that was on the agenda to change the probation period. And that was — he wanted to ask a question, I think, as to when it was going to come up for a vote, and then also elaborate on some input that he wanted to have, I guess — I'm not sure, but I think that he asked why we were, as a council, going to change or are interested in changing this probation time. So if I'm not mistaken, that is all the conversation consisted of.

Q. Let me return to that conversation just a couple of minutes. With regard to the discharge of Mr. Davis, who, within the city, made that final decision that he would be terminated?
A. I would assume it would be the city manager.
Q. Well, I don't want you to assume. Do you know, in fact, who has the authority and who, in fact, made the final decision to terminate
Mr. Davis?
A. I don't get into the specifics of personnel, but I'm just assuming the way it works
I'm assuming that I can't tell you specifically.
You're asking for a specific answer. I don't know.
I would think that it would work based on the fire chief making a recommendation of termination to the city manager. If I'm not mistaken, I think the fire chief has the authority to make those decisions, but I think he runs those decisions by the city manager prior to executing those things.
Q. Okay. But once again, just so the record is clear, you were not involved in the decisionmaking to terminate Mr. Davis; is that A. No.

Q. -- correct? Have you, Mr. Mayor, ever spoken to the media or a journalist, newspaper reporter, about the termination of Mr. Davis from his job in the fire department?

- A. I have been asked questions concerning that.
 - Q. Was that a newspaper?

- A. I'm sure both. I mean, typically, we get hit by all the media, so I know that a newspaper did ask about it, and I'm sure there was some other media coverage also.
 - Q. And what newspaper are you referring to?
- A. Would have been both the Columbus Ledger across the river, and I'm sure the local paper covered it also.
- Q. And do you remember what you might have said about the termination of Mr. Davis to those newspapers?
- A. I typically don't comment on things like that, so it would have been more or less no comment or something to that effect. Typically, personnel issues, especially since they're not within my realm, I try not to comment on them. And if I keep getting pressed, I try to say as little as I can, because I don't know a lot about those things because that's not within my authority to -- it's out of my pay grade.

- Q. Sir, do you remember if you told a journalist or a representative from a newspaper that you were surprised to discover or learn that Mr. Davis had been fired?
 - A. I'm sure I did, if they would have asked.
- Q. And that would have been an accurate comment, because I think you testified about that?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. All right. Let me invite your attention to Exhibit Number 10, if you would turn to that. And this happens to be a pleading or a motion to dismiss that was filed by the attorneys in this case earlier on in the lawsuit. And if you would go to page number five of this pleading.
 - A. Okay.
- Q. And you'll see about a third of the way down here on page five of this Motion to Dismiss where it says, quote, it is not disputed that the reason for the termination of the plaintiff was his contact to the mayor, which was a direct violation of the city's merit system's rules and regulations, end quote. Do you see where it says that?
 - A. Yes, I do.
 - Q. As far as you know, sir, based upon the information that you had about the circumstances surrounding Mr. Davis's termination, is it fair and accurate to say that that was the single reason or single basis for the termination of Mr. Davis?

- A. I I don't I know that was one of the reasons. That's what I was told, that was one of the reasons.
- Q. Were there additional reasons for his termination that you were told?
- A. I'm assuming -- my answer is I assumed that when I heard that, because I heard that was one of the reasons but there were other pending factors that weighed in on that.
- Q. When you say there were other pending factors that weighed in, what were those pending factors?
 - A. I didn't get involved in that.
- Q. So you don't know if there were other factors?
 - A. No.

Q. A couple questions on Exhibit Number 11, Mr. Mayor. This is a document that is over the name of David Davis, then vice-president of the local firefighters association dated January 25, 2005, which was addressed to then fire chief Jerry Prater in which Mr. Davis and the firefighters' labor association have raised a number of issues that they wanted to explore and discuss, including safety, general employment issues, discipline, and communications. Have you ever seen this document before today?

- A. I don't recall the document. I have gotten some mail from them, but I don't know if this was part of the package that I received or not.
- Q. When you say you received mail from them, you mean from the firefighters' labor association?
- A. Well, let me say I don't know. I've gotten mail -- I get anonymous mail from time to time that talks about different things. So I don't know if I received this or not. It does not look familiar to me, but I have received some stuff and actually have seen some stuff in the paper about different things. So I don't know -- I don't know if I received this under this cover, or if something like this came to me anonymously, I don't know.
- Q. But when you said just a moment ago that you received some stuff or mailings, as I understood your comment, and explained that you received information or documents from the firefighters' labor group or labor association. Do you recall that?

- A. I don't receive -- I don't believe I received anything specifically from the firefighters addressed to me, but have seen some stuff that has circulated around about the firefighters' association and some of the -- some of this stuff that is outlined in here, I've heard of a couple of these things.
 - Q. When you say you've seen some stuff --
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. -- just so it's clear --
- A. Some paperwork. Some letters. Some basic stuff that's been generated around, whether it's come to me or other council members that may have been circulated around.
- Q. Okay. But this would have been letters or memos from the firefighters' labor association; is that correct?
 - A. Or copies of those, yes, sir.
- Q. In the last two years since you've been mayor?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. And would those have been circulated or given to the city council members as well?
 - A. I don't know that. Like I say, from time to time, we share — we share anonymous mail back and forth, so from time to time, some people get things and some others don't. So we — but sometimes if we find something that is — not that this would be amusing, but sometimes we share things that come in the mail that are amusing about each other.

I'm not sure whether this particular piece came to any of us, but some of these things, as I look over it, looks like we have seen some of this stuff — or I've seen some of this stuff.

- Q. Okay. If you would, turn briefly to Exhibit Number 14, which are copies of various newspaper articles and letters to the editor of newspapers in which the fire department policies and issues are being discussed by various firefighters as well as Chief Hunter and others. Do you recall, at least in a general sense, Mr. Mayor, having seen these newspaper articles in September of 2006 and even earlier, September 2005, over the course of the last couple of years?
 - A. I have. I'm looking over them now.
 - Q. Yes. Take your time, please.
- A. I know I've seen some of these. I don't know if I actually read all of these, but I have seen some of these.

- Q. And at least in a general sense, in these various newspaper articles, particularly the first one that's in Exhibit 14, a number of the firefighters, including David Davis, expressed their concerns about a poor or low morale in the fire department and expressed their concerns about understaffing within the city's fire department. Have these particular issues or concerns been brought to your attention about
 - A. Through --
 - Q. I'm sorry. Go ahead.
- A. Certainly when you read stuff like this in the paper, that brings it to your attention because everybody is talking about it when they see it in the paper like that. So, yes, it was brought to our attention.
- Q. And other than the one meeting that you indicated earlier in your testimony that you had with the city manager and the chief of the fire department, have you had other meetings to address these issues of concern raised by the firefighters and Mr. Davis?
 - A. None that I recall, no, sir.
 - Q. Just that one meeting?

1 A. Yes, sir.

- Q. Do you know if any action was taken in response to that one meeting by the fire department or Chief Hunter to address these issues?
- A. No. Chief Prater is who I met with at the time. And, like I said, my only comments at the time were you know, all I want to know is do you know that there's some issues within the fire department and do you have a plan to fix that.
- Q. Did you do a follow-up, though, to see if then Chief Jerry Prater addressed those issues?
- A. No. See, that's where it gets -- that's where the line is very specific.
 - O. That's the disconnect?
- A. Right. And then my correspondence after that would be with the city manager, so --
- Q. Okay. Let's move on to a letter that I believe you received, but I certainly want to ask you about it.
 - A. Okay.
- Q. And this would be Exhibit Number 17, Mayor. And this appears to be a letter from the general president of the International Association of Firefighters, a gentleman named Harold Schaitberger, and it's dated January 31, 2006, and

1	it's addressed to the then City Manager Roberts.

15	A. Okay.
